

00:00:00 Speaker 1

We have been talking about different topics.

00:00:03 Speaker 1

OK, I have just little details about.

00:00:07

Sitting here.

00:00:08 Speaker 1

First focus was like who hoped to work hard and resist a journey has begun.

00:00:14 Speaker 1

It failed to build a dream.

00:00:16 Speaker 1

And emergencies in the world and how prepared are we?

00:00:22 Speaker 1

These can be found in the whole world, because you can find them more widely.

00:00:26 Speaker 1

So what we want to work upon is the climate crisis. Yeah. We want to work upon it as a nation.

00:00:33 Speaker 1

Yeah we have to work upon it as a nation.

00:00:37 Speaker 1

Because it is in in our environment.

00:00:39 Speaker 1

So I started with this.

00:00:48 Speaker 1

Part of Africa.

00:00:50 Speaker 1

Therefore, there is a plethora of features, cultures and places that prove that proves that that statement is true, just that just as you see this so.

00:01:03 Speaker 1

This is like this, OK?

00:01:06 Speaker 1

For the futuristic cities, I put this just to show the kind of future that you want want a green future different from what what might have happened if we don't work upon our environment.

00:01:21 Speaker 1

So to maintain or make our future green, like having our cities together with the with the buildings, we have to get rid of the bad vices that destroy our environment and then maintain the habits that will protect our environment.
